

Primary Election Information

- The Republican party will be holding a Primary election to determine which candidate will represent their party on the November General Election ballot. The party, not San Juan County, determine the rules surrounding who may vote in their primary election. The ballot you receive is based on the political party you affiliated with on your most recent voter registration application.
- Republican – will automatically receive the Republican ballot
- Unaffiliated – may request a Republican ballot by affiliating with the Republican Party up to and including on Election Day
- Democratic, Green, Independent American, Libertarian, Constitution, United Utah – may request a Republican ballot by changing affiliation to Republican no later than June 19, 2020
- If you choose not to vote in the Primary, you will still receive a ballot for the November General Election.
